Member Comments:

Patios by B&B owner, Paul Goldman, came out himself for the estimate. I knew from the minute I met him (after having received 3 other quotes), that he was the contractor we were going to choose regardless of price. He came out on a Saturday, and we had a detailed written quote 3 days later. Turns out he was the CHEAPEST of the 4 bids we got, but he offered something more important to us - integrity in the work he was doing. It was clear that he loved what he did, and his number one priority was ensuring that the customer's vision was implemented. He offered good suggestions during the estimate and EXACTLY new how he was going to tackle a few unique requests we had. He was extremely professional and a pleasure to work with. We even had an additional small request that we thought had been listed in the contract and wasn't. But he did it anyways without charging us. His workers (whom he has worked with for years) were very professional and cleaned up after themselves. When Paul himself came to do the final walk through, we were so impressed with the quality of the workmanship and the attention to not only details but to our vision. I would hire him again without hesitation. I felt compelled to get him listed on Angie's List, since the other 3 contractors we got bids from were all on Angie's List, and NONE of them impressed us (not to mention they all had higher pricing). With Patios by B&B, you get much more than what you are paying for - quality service and a great price.
